

In recognition of its social responsibilities, Press Corporation Limited is involved in social investment directly through the Corporate Head Office and indirectly through its subsidiary and associate companies, and makes donations in cash and in kind to organisations involved in serving the less privileged members of the community.

{AG thumbwidth="175"}donation{/AG}

Following a donation of MK20 million that was made to a private hospital in the previous year for it to acquire a dialysis machine, the hospital now has a fully equipped and operational dialysis unit that is serving the local community as well as patients from other parts of the country.